APPLICATION GUIDE

PSPS

Park Chung Hee School of Policy and Saemaul (PSPS) invites promising students from all around the world, providing them with a supportive environment to create global leaders who will play a pivotal role in reducing poverty and working for the betterment of the world.

ACADEMIC INFORMATION

PSPS offers master's programs in five different majors: Saemaul Undong and Community Development, International Development Cooperation, Public Policy and Leadership, Forest Resources and Ecological Restoration, and Environmental Management and Policy. The degree program can be completed within a year and a half, or four semesters. One academic year consists of three semesters: 16 weeks of spring semester, 12 weeks of summer semester and 16 weeks of fall semester.

During the first three semesters, students are required to be on campus to complete their coursework. In the last semester, students may choose to prepare for their thesis either in Korea or in their home country. Students are required to obtain at least 30 credits in addition to completing a research project or thesis.
