

Information on Expected Mandatory Subscription to the National Health Insurance of Korea

If you have resided for more than six months in the Republic of Korea, you will be mandatorily subscribed to the National Health Insurance of Korea from July 16, 2019.

1. [REDACTED] have been confirmed as of 13.05.2019 as having resided in Korea for over 4 months, and should you continue residing in the country, you will be mandatorily subscribed to the National Health Insurance from 16.07.2019..

* Should the above information be incorrect, report your temporary place of residence to the branch office of your residence's jurisdiction.

※ (Subscription procedure) NHIS processes the subscription then sends the Medical Insurance Card, information, and bill. If you did not receive them, always check whether you are subscribed to the insurance with the service.

2. (Insurance premium) The insurance premium is calculated for each household according to income and property. If the calculated premium is below the average premium of all subscribers, the average premium is imposed.

* Average premium (in year 2019) : KRW 113,050 / month

3. (Combined subscription of family as one household) If you wish to pay the premium as one household unit (yourself, spouse, and children under 19 years old residing at the same place), prepare the necessary documents, visit the branch office of your residence's jurisdiction.

❖ Documents to submit

- Alien Registration Card or Domestic Residence Report
- A document proving family relations or marriage (The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of your country of citizenship [or Apostille] should confirm it. [Include the Korean translation of the document.])

※ As for documents issued outside the Republic of Korea, only those within nine months from the issuance date are acknowledged as valid.

※ Permanent Resident (F-5), Spouse of a Korean National (F-6): The insurance premium imposed and the deadline for payment are the same as those applied to the citizens of the Republic of Korea.
